Class Poem

As the poet of the class,
I'll tell all as bold as brass,
Seniors we have, in number thirteen,
as lads and lasses, They're on the beam!

Doris Arnold-She's the type,
Red hair, blue eyes, and always right?

Louise Beavers- A honey, a silly,
Giving love lessons to Sunny and Billy.

Billy Chesser- A hard boiled case,
A Milburn girl he does chase.

Then there's Bobby Chesser already hen-pecked
Careful son you'll get cold-decked.

Ina Mae Clark- She's a dream,
Won't she and Johnny make a cute team?

Peggy Devine- Cute, aw shaw!
Billy Hayes calls her grandma.

Belle Hardin- Cute and frisky,
Hey! Julian she's risky.

Bobby Hayes- Little and loud,
Attracting Sue's attention from the crowd.

Hello Mattingly! Get on the beam!
Ella Mae Mobley cheers for Simpson on the Mackville Team.

Maxine Perkins-Cute and neat,
As a Missionary she'd be sweet.

Gertrude Richardson- Naughty but nice,
Soon good people you can throw rice.

Blonnetta Sims- She's alright,
Oh boy! What she does at night!

We have a girl- Dorothy Warner,
Likes to see the boys in the corner.

Bobby Riley will finish late
Because he and Lillian had a date.

Seniors' Prophecy

As we look around about us we find ourselves in the middle of the year 1960. At this time the Willisburg Community looks upon the class of 1950 which at last has reached their stable positions in life.

We see Bobby and Billy Cheser married to the Milburn girls and living in a red house on the Mackville Road. They each have triplets who totter after them as they toil daily on their small farm. Bobby and Billy look forward to the day when their sons will enroll in the Willisburg High School, which is now under the supervision of Bobby Hays.

Belle Hardin is very happy in life since she has obtained from the Kentucky State Board of Education, a special permit which states that "One Belle Hardin may cheerlead for the Willisburg Bulldogs as long as she is physically able."

We see Maxine Perkins working in a foreign country as a nurse.

We see Peggy Devine, an artist, using her husband Billy Hays as a model in painting for the Upper New York Doll Company.

We see Blonnetta Sims chasing Bill Kays across the cornfield with a rolling pin.

At last Gertrude Richardson's day dreaming has brought to her a husband with the dual combination of Earl Flynn and Ansel Singleton.

We see Ina Mae Clark and Doris Arnold as private secretaries of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.

We see Louise Beavers and Ella Mae Mobley doing secretarial work in the registrar's office at the University of Kentucky.

We see Bobby Riley now head of the Central Highway Construction Company.

Last but not least, we see Dorothy Warner running her skating rink "Sunshine Valley". She is skating down a shining rainbow to the pot of gold for which the Senior Class has so long been looking.

Class History

The year 1946, we found ourselves in high school as green Freshmen. The number enrolled was thirty-nine. We had an enjoyable party February 27. Belle Hardin was elected cheerleader in her Freshman year, being fortunate to be elected all four years. We lost several of our students in our Freshman year, who wandered on to a different field of life.

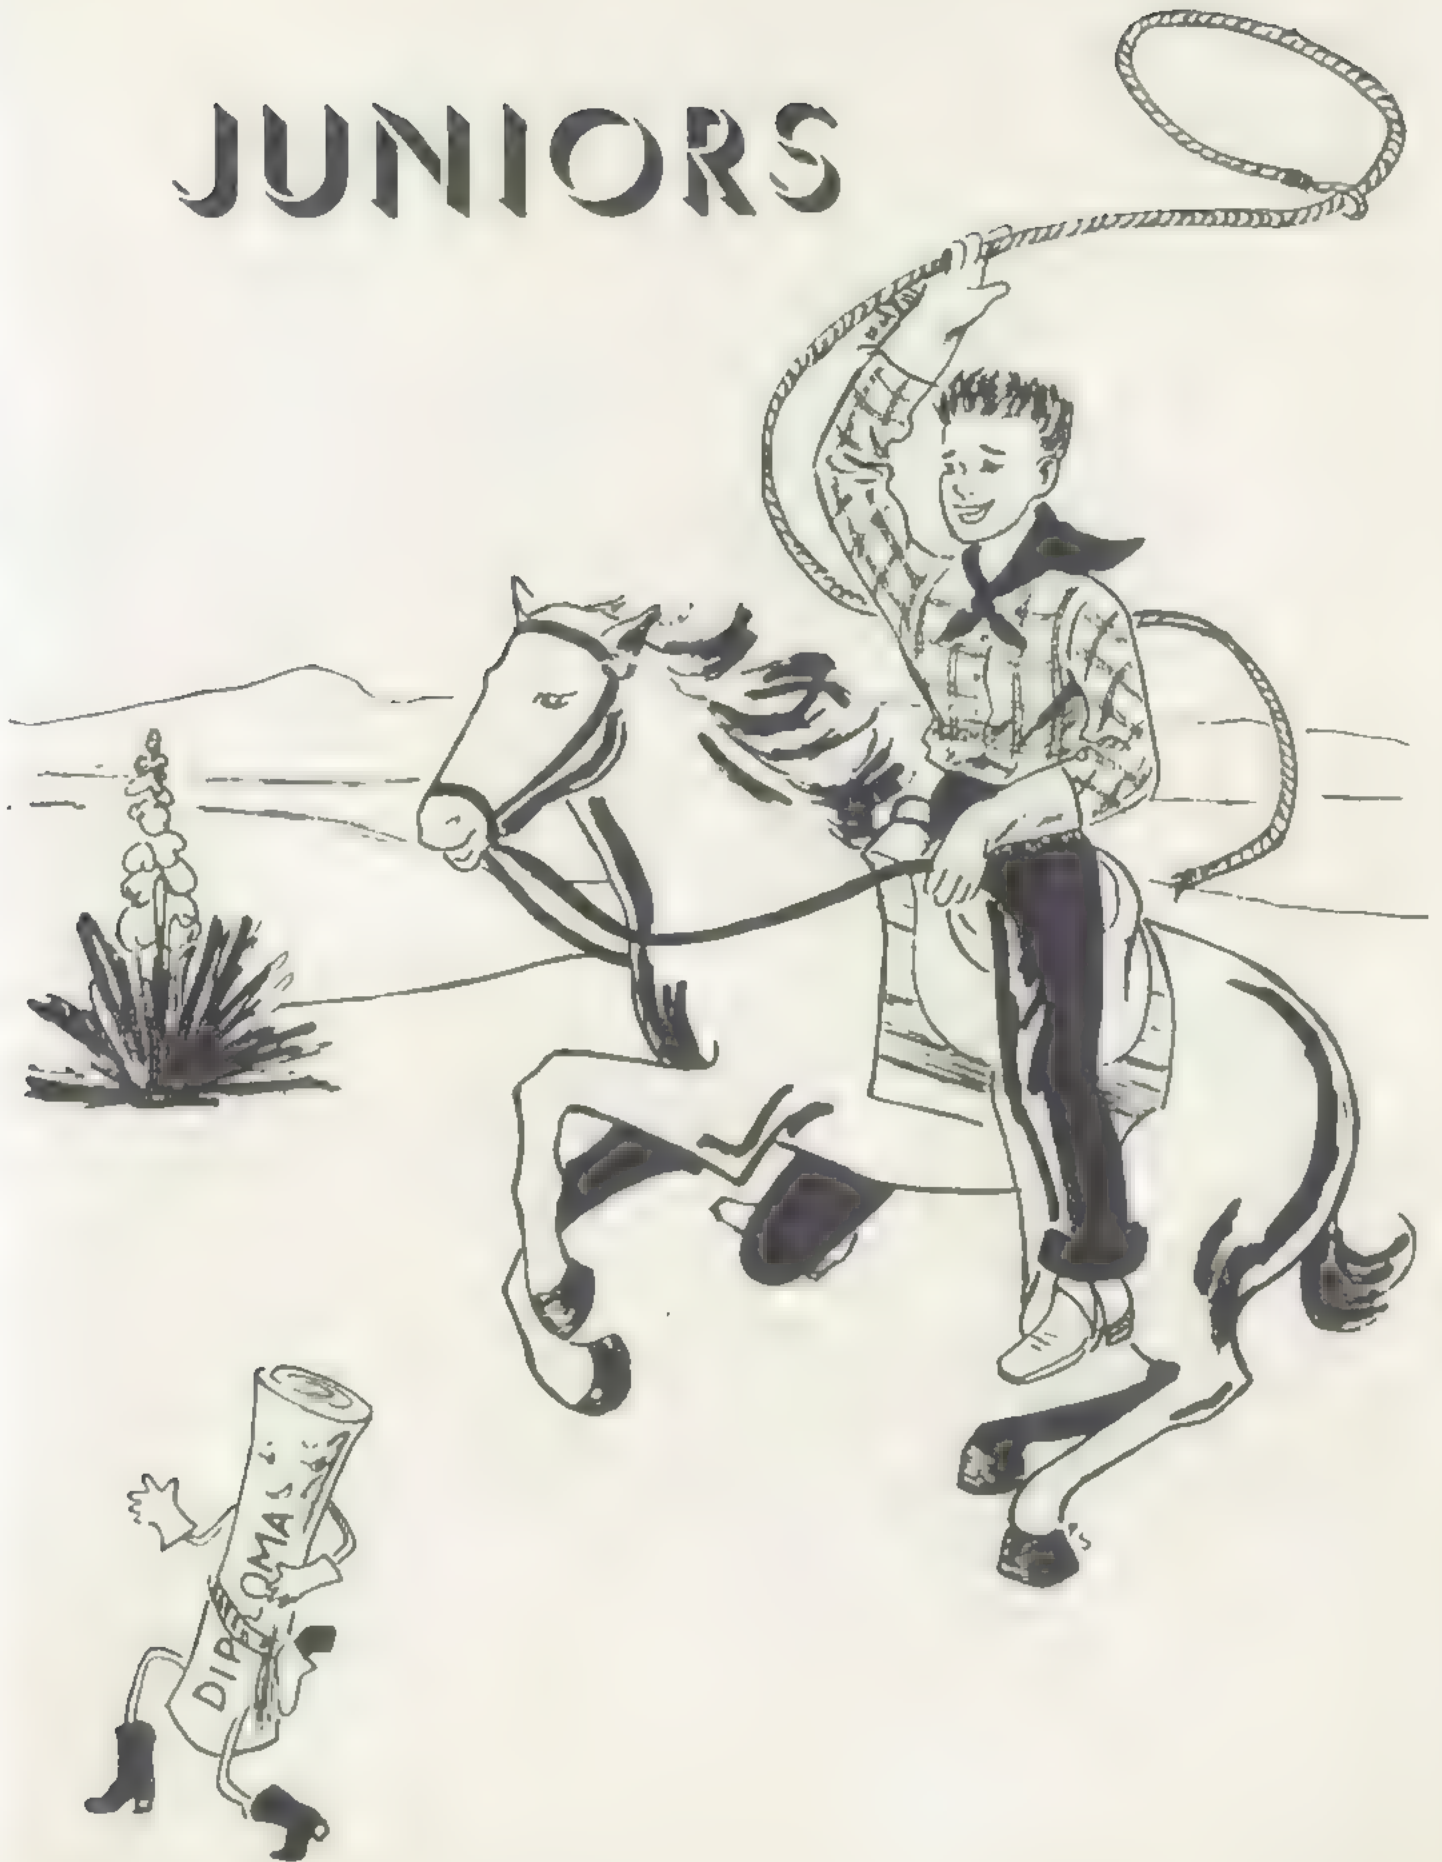

In 1947, twenty-five enrolled as Sophomores. There were eleven boys and fourteen girls. We had an enjoyable party in February sponsored by Miss Yeager, our history instructor. Peggy Devine was elected cheerleader in her Sophomore year, and the consecutive years.

In the year 1948, we found ourselves as Jolly Juniors. There were twenty students enrolled during our Junior year. To make money for our senior trip, we gave a circus. This enterprise netted us $75.00. May 7, 1949, the Juniors escorted the Seniors to Mammoth Cave on the Annual Junior-Senior trip.

We started in our Senior year with fourteen enrolled, ten girls and four boys. We have done several things this year to raise money for our Senior trip. Seven of us Seniors started together in the first grade. These seven were: Louise Beavers, Doris Arnold, Maxine Perkins, Peggy Devine, Belle Hardin, Billy Cheser, and Bobby Cheser. Ella Mae Mobley and Bobby Cheser were elected Queen and King of the Senior Class. We have one classmate, Louise Beavers, who has had perfect attendance throughout her twelve years of school. Initiation of the Freshman Class took place October 12. After initiation the Senior Class entertained the Freshmen by giving them a party.

We, the Seniors of '49 and '50, began school in a new building, erected in 1938. We are also finishing school in a new building, erected in 1949.
